A PRAYER FOR FATHERS

Pope St. John XXIII

St. Joseph, guardian of Jesus and chaste husband of Mary, you passed your life in loving fulfillment of duty. You supported the holy family of Nazareth with the work of your hands. Kindly protect those who trustingly come to you. You know their aspirations, their hardships, their hopes. They look to you because they know you will understand and protect them. You too knew trial, labor and weariness. But amid the worries of material life your soul was full of deep peace and sang out in true joy through intimacy with God's Son entrusted to you and with Mary, his tender Mother. Assure those you protect that they do not labor alone. Teach them to find Jesus near them and to watch over him faithfully as you have done.

ONLINE DONATIONS

Dear parishioners,

If you are not able to attend, but still wish to donate, here are the ways in which you can continue to support our parish at this time:

- Mail your regular weekly offertory contribution to the parish or drop off to the parish locked mailbox by the office door, or drop off in the donations box at Mass.
- Online donations can be made at www.archtoronto.org. Simply click on the donate now icon, select St. Francis de Sales parish from the drop down menu and the fund you wish to donate to. This can be done as a onetime donation or as an ongoing monthly donation. It will give you a place to choose that option.
- Contribute through pre-authorized giving. You can obtain a form from the parish website. Mail the completed form and a voided cheque to the parish office. Or e-mail the form and a scanned copy or photo of a voided cheque to development@archtoronto.org for processing. Contributions are withdrawn from your bank account on the 20th of each month.

Thank you for your many contributions to our parish community.

SL ShareLife

Due to Covid19 restrictions, the collection dates for ShareLife have been adjusted. Please note that you can donate to this year's ShareLife appeal at any time. You may place your donation in the offertory box located behind the baptismal font or give by way of credit card (by visiting www.sharelife.org), before the end of October which is the closing of the ShareLife Appeal for 2021. Thank you for your generosity.

To date we have collected $34,933 (42%) of our Parish goal, which is $84,800.

REFLECTION

In the minds of many people, June is the month mostly associated with weddings. And to the minds of most people, even with many Catholics, marriage is not seen as associated with one's salvation. (Salvation by its simplest definition is about getting to heaven the way Jesus wants to get us there). We have bought into society's shifting idea of marriage, only for romance purposes, rather than the Church's teaching of vocation and sacrament (a visible presence of Christ to the world).

There is the objective (sacramental) side and subjective (personal, psychological) side to marriage. These two sides are not mutually exclusive, but they are meant to enrich each other. A couple should first discern whether or not God has called each of the individuals into the other's life as husband and wife. We do not get to choose our parents or siblings but we do have a choice in marrying our husband or wife-to-be, should it be God's will. Private prayer as well as public prayer (at Mass) is also a good place to discern God's will. While romance and attraction is a good place to start in seeking out another, romance and attraction are not the place to stand on permanently, as can be attested to by many couples who have been married many years.

On the objective level, many Catholics are seeking to marry outside of the Church, on the beach, in a backyard, at a golf course place or to have a civil ceremony. After all, many others who are not Catholic also celebrate marriage and it doesn't have to be within the "confines" of their religion. For the sake of their salvation, many Catholics are unaware that they are required by Christ to be married within His Church to be a reflection of His love for His mystical body. Christ our Creator has imbued our human nature (the thing we're made of) with a nuptial design to guide us through this life and to the next life with Him. In getting married, each party is saying to the other: "God has put you into my life so that we will help each other get to heaven," and "God has put us in each other's lives so that we will help our children get to heaven." This is the crux and ultimate meaning of marriage, not just romance and attraction.

If you're married outside of the Catholic Church you should withhold from receiving the Eucharist and then seek to have your marriage "sacramentalized" even if your spouse may be uncooperative.

On the subjective side, many are (objectively) married within the Catholic Church but do not live out their commitment to be a life long loving mate to their spouse. While no marriage is perfect, there are in some marriages (and hence, family) various forms of neglect, disdain, and abuse.

Reflection Cont'd...

If a couple finds itself in this form of "disrepair" they should seek out the Church's help and professional help. There is so much misinformation about marriage in the Catholic Church as well as divorce and annulments. Please phone or email a priest to jettison away any misinformation you may have. It is worth your salvation.

Keeping Mary safe

The pandemic has been particularly arduous for seniors in long-term care, as their worried loved ones look on from a distance.

Mary, a mother of two and doting grandmother of five, lives at Providence Healthcare's Cardinal Ambrozic Houses of Providence. Its rigorous safety measures are challenging for someone like Mary, who loves socializing in the four languages she speaks. And while she's learned how to make video calls with her iPad, she longs to once again receive visitors in person.

"It's been hard during COVID-19," Mary says, "but we understand the precautions that staff are taking. Providence staff have been absolutely wonderful."

Thanks to the generosity of donors like you, Providence is doing everything possible to keep Mary safe.

Your support saves lives

"After I lost a couple of my friends to overdose, I realized it was time to get my life on track," Dadzie recalls. "I didn't want to end up like that."

A case worker encouraged him to enroll in Good Shepherd Ministries' DARE program for homeless men with addictions. In this program, clients live together in a secure dormitory, offering each other support while they receive counselling.

"I've seen improvement every day since my treatment," says Dadzie, who now volunteers twice a week in Good Shepherd's clothing room and kitchen. "If not for Good Shepherd, I would never have made it."

Your gift to ShareLife makes the DARE program possible.

A more caring community

"ShareLife is the front line, person-to-person charity of caring that, in my mind, demonstrates the true meaning of the Gospels, put into action. When I researched the work they do, I was amazed and impressed by the extent and variety of people they help.

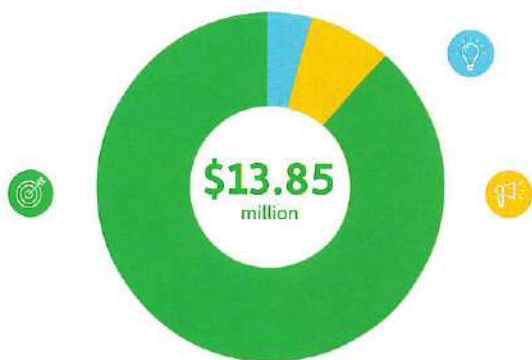

"ShareLife is personal, direct, unglamorous, effective and important help for those in need. They make our community a kinder and more caring place. It's true charity in action."

- Robert Pierce, a ShareLife supporter
