THE THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

December 12, 2021

Son of man, coming unexpectedly into Mary and Joseph's life and ours, show up in our advent preparations. Meet us in the busyness and silence. Interrupt our comfortable lives with your newness of life. Prepare us to be unsettled by the unconditional love of God who is born in our lives, over and over again — Amen

PRAYER FROM www.cccb.ca

Our mission at St. Francis de Sales is to joyfully welcome you to our parish family of faith, trusting that: if you are seeking Christ, you will find Him here. If grieving, you will receive comfort. If troubled in spirit, you will receive the blessing of peace without being judged. If discouraged, you will rejoice in hope. If alone, you will find companionship and Christian love. May our parish be a sanctuary of peace for you as we journey together to the Father's house.

3rd Sunday of Advent

“May it be done to me according to your word”. Mary does not require confirmation, but responds in Faith. She agrees to carry out the Word Gabriel has addressed to her. Her response again calls forth OT language - Abraham's “Here I am” (Gn 22:1) - Isaiah's “Here am I, send me” (Is 6:8) - Hannah's “Think kindly on your maidservant” Raymond Brown says “Mary’s response qualifies her as Jesus’ first disciple.... Her humble acquiescence to the will of God commends itself to every believer: “Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord; let what you have said be done to me.” Mary is thus presented as the perfect disciple. Those who find out what God wants of them and accept His message as Mary did are Jesus' true followers. Those who only hear the Word but never put it into action are deceiving themselves. Christian Faith is a matter of continually making Jesus a part of our lives.”

ONLINE DONATIONS

Dear parishioners,

If you are not able to attend, but still wish to donate, here are the ways in which you can continue to support our parish at this time:

- Mail your regular weekly offertory contribution to the parish or drop off to the parish locked mailbox by the office door, or drop off in the donations box at Mass.
- Online donations can be made at www.archtoronto.org. Simply click on the donate now icon, select St. Francis de Sales parish from the drop-down menu and the fund you wish to donate to. This can be done as a onetime donation or as an ongoing monthly donation. It will give you a place to choose that option.
- Contribute through pre-authorized giving. You can obtain a form from the parish website. Mail the completed form and a voided cheque to the parish office. Or e-mail the form and a scanned copy or photo of a voided cheque to development@archtoronto.org for processing. Contributions are withdrawn from your bank account on the 20th of each month.

Thank you for your many contributions to our parish community.

REFLECTION

This week we continue on the last 4 petitions of the Our Father prayer. As the Commandments can thus be divided into 2 categories, the first 3 dealing with God and the last 7 dealing with our neighbour, we can say that the first 3 petitions of the Our Father is focused on God and the last 4 are focused on human beings.

The second half of the Our Father looks to the disciples' needs. Each of the 4 petitions uses "us." In this way, Jesus transforms each petition into a simultaneous act of intercession for all of humanity.

In the fourth petition, Our Redeemer teaches us to ask for "daily bread." On one hand, it can mean just "bread for the day," though Jesus elsewhere tells His followers not to be anxious about earthly food and drink (Mt 6:25-33). On the other hand, it can be translated as "bread for the coming day" or "supernatural bread." In an ancient Jewish context, either of these would call to mind the miraculous manna from heaven, which God gave Israel during their wanderings in the wilderness (Ex 16:1-31). If this is correct, the implications are enormous, since Jesus will later identify Himself, in particular, His flesh as the "true bread which came down from heaven" (Jn 6:48-51). Seen in this light, the first thing Jesus teaches us is to ask for in the Our Father, is the gift of "the Bread" that He "will give for the life of the world" (Jn 6:31).

In the fifth petition, Jesus teaches us to ask the Father "to forgive us our debts as we forgive those trespass against us." Debts are an ancient Jewish way of referring to sins. Interestingly, this is the only petition that is conditional. The point is important that Jesus repeats it immediately: "For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father also will forgive you; but if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses" (Mt 6:14-15).

Jesus states in no uncertain terms that the forgiveness by God depends entirely on whether His disciples forgive others.

In the sixth petition, "lead us not into temptation" Jesus teaches us to ask the Father not to allow us to be tested beyond our strength. Contrary to what some may think, this line does not mean that God tempts people to sin. "Do not lead us into temptation" means "do not allow us to give in to temptation." The New Testament states that "God cannot be tempted with evil and He Himself tempts no one" (James 1:13). Here Jesus is instructing His disciples to ask the Father to be merciful in the face of their own weakness by not allowing them to fall into temptation.

FIRST COMMUNION

It has been so nice to see the children at Mass. Please note that all children in the virtual school and the children who are in Gr. 3-6 picked up their First Reconciliation books after Mass last weekend. Please contact Mrs. Selda if you were unable to pick-up your book. Wishing all our families a beautiful Advent journey.

CONFIRMATION

Please remember that confirmandi are expected to attend the evening of Reconciliation on Tuesday December 14th between 7-9 pm. Parents are highly encouraged to go to Confession. Please stop by the table after Confession to pick-up your Confirmation preparation book.

CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE

The CWL ladies would like to extend a special thank you to all members and parishioners who donated and ordered baked items at the Whole Pie Bake Sale. A special thank you as well to the ladies who made items for the craft tables, and to parishioners who browsed and purchased from the craft tables at the Mini Bazar. Our fundraising initiative was a success!

Reflection Cont'd...

In the seventh petition, "deliver us from evil" Jesus teaches us to ask God to deliver us from the power of Satan. Seen in this light, the final line is not a prayer for protection from suffering and death but from the power of evil. Jesus' prayer is not just a spiritual exercise, it is part of a great spiritual battle between good and evil.
