"The Measure of Love, is Love without Measure"

– Saint Francis de Sales

Our mission at St. Francis de Sales is to joyfully welcome you to our parish family of faith, trusting that: if you are seeking Christ, you will find Him here. If grieving, you will receive comfort. If troubled in spirit, you will receive the blessing of peace without being judged. If discouraged, you will rejoice in hope. If alone, you will find companionship and Christian love. May our parish be a sanctuary of peace for you as we journey together to the Father's house.

The stakes have never been higher

"Vulnerable members of our community are relying on you and me to ensure ongoing access to the care they so desperately need. This is why it's crucial we meet our ShareLife Parish Campaign goal of $13.8 million. Our goal can be met, but only if we each do our part."

– Cardinal Thomas Collins

By giving to Sharelife, you bring the hands of Christ to those in need. Your contribution supports over 40 agencies in your community and around the world, serving people of all faiths.

Keeping Mary safe

The pandemic has been particularly arduous for seniors in long-term care, as their worried loved ones look on from a distance.

Mary, a mother of two and doting grandmother of five, lives at Providence Healthcare's Cardinal Ambrozic Houses of Providence. Its rigorous safety measures are challenging for someone like Mary, who loves socializing in the four languages she speaks. And while she's learned how to make video calls with her iPad, she longs to once again receive visitors in person.

"It's been hard during COVID-19," Mary says, "but we understand the precautions that staff are taking. Providence staff have been absolutely wonderful."

Thanks to the generosity of donors like you, Providence is doing everything possible to keep Mary safe.

Your support saves lives

"After I lost a couple of my friends to overdose, I realized it was time to get my life on track," Dadzie recalls. "I didn't want to end up like that."

A case worker encouraged him to enroll in Good Shepherd Ministries' DARE program for homeless men with addictions. In this program, clients live together in a secure dormitory, offering each other support while they receive counselling.

"I've seen improvement every day since my treatment," says Dadzie, who now volunteers twice a week in Good Shepherd's clothing room and kitchen. "If not for Good Shepherd, I would never have made it."

Your gift to ShareLife makes the DARE program possible.

You enable 21,000 people to receive affordable mental health care through family service agencies

A more caring community

"ShareLife is the front line, person-to-person charity of caring that, in my mind, demonstrates the true meaning of the Gospels, put into action. When I researched the work they do, I was amazed and impressed by the extent and variety of people they help.

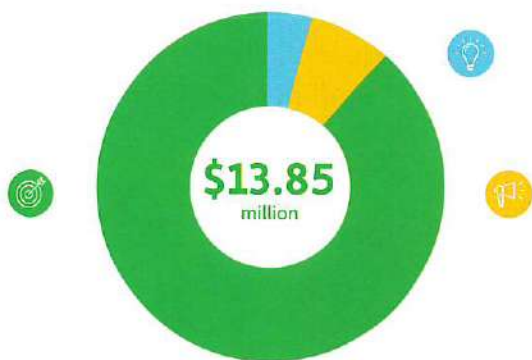

"ShareLife is personal, direct, unglamorous, effective and important help for those in need. They make our community a kinder and more caring place. It's true charity in action."

- Robert Pierce, a ShareLife supporter

QUESTION & ANSWER

In Mark 10:2-12, we read that Jesus talks about remarriage after divorce as adultery. Many people are wondering if these words were really reflective of what Jesus said. In other words, did the disciples or someone else “put words in the mouth of Jesus?”

The passage we are talking about is taken from Mark 10:11-12: “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery.”

Firstly, in this passage Jesus says something very unusual. He says something that breaks with Jewish tradition, and implicitly rebukes Moses, who, of course, made provision for divorce. It is not what you would expect a Jew of the first century to say, and it goes against the grain of many of the things that Jesus says elsewhere, where it is made clear that He esteems Moses and the Law greatly. This means that the passage is not invented by Jesus’ followers. It is a hard saying (as the passage itself makes clear) and thus one that no one would ever make up. It represents a shocking departure from tradition; ergo, it is only in the Gospel because it must have been from the lips of the Lord. No one would have dared to make this up; nor would it occur to anyone to imagine it.

Secondly, this passage has parallels in Matthew and Luke, and thus represents what we call “triple tradition”. That we have three witnesses to the words of Jesus surely increases the likelihood that they are His words, not words put into His mouth.

Thirdly, the writings of Saint Paul, which predate the Gospels in no way contradict Jesus’ words. If there is any doubt over what “unlawful marriage” means, look at the First Letter to the Corinthians (written, again, before the Gospels). St Paul talks of the various bad practices that the Christians have now put away, and in the same chapter quotes the tag about the “two becoming one flesh”. This is a sign that Paul was familiar with Jesus’ teaching which would be recorded in the gospels of Matthew 19:3-9, Mark 10:2-12 and Luke 16:18. (See 1 Cor 6:9-10; 7:10-11; 7:39; 10:13; also see Rom 7:2-3).

Fourthly, we remember that Jesus spoke to the Samaritan woman (a non-Jew) at the well thusly: “Go call your husband and come back.” The woman answered him, ‘I have no husband.’ Jesus said to her, ‘You are right in saying, ‘I have no husband’; for you have had five husbands and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true!’ The woman said to him, ‘Sir I see that you are a prophet...’ (John 4:16-19).

Fifthly, St. John the Baptist give witness to Jesus’ words on divorce and remarriage when he was martyred by King Herod Antipas for marrying his sister-in-law while her husband was alive. (see Matthew 14:3-12).

For updated information on First Communion please email Dawn Selda at dawn.selda@archtoronto.org; For Confirmation please email Noah Aquino at noah.aquino@outlook.com

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

Please see the Parish website for the First Communion dates and times and note that these dates are subject to change depending on if new provincial restrictions are required...we pray that things will improve in our world with more people receiving the vaccination in the coming weeks. We will be required to use a ticket system again this year to ensure we maintain the required physical distancing. The number of tickets that will be given to each family will be confirmed closer to the sacramental dates. Please have your child begin to work on the First Communion preparation books at home this week. Again, Father and I will send out the First Communion preparation videos to complement what the children are learning in their books, a little closer to the First Communion dates. God bless!

CONFIRMATION

Due to the limited capacity of the church set out by the provincial Government, Confirmation Masses may be postponed. Noah will be sending out an email with further instructions and an update with Confirmation. There are currently no tentative dates for rescheduled Confirmation Masses. Please continue to monitor the website and bulletin for updates. We thank you for your patience, flexibility, and prayers as we navigate through this third wave. Continue to pray daily, attend/watch Mass every Sunday and we will continue to keep all of you in our prayers. Take care and stay safe everyone.

ShareLife

ShareLife: Supporting mental health in our community. Our parish's ShareLife Campaign is now underway. ShareLife Sunday is April 18th. Please reflect on the great needs of our brothers and sisters who are helped through your generous support of ShareLife. Our parish goal for this year's campaign is $84,800. Please give generously.

Let us pray! For the sick members of our parish and for those who love and minister to them.
