Walk with Jesus

You have 40 Days to Transform your Heart

After His baptism, Jesus went into the desert for 40 days to pray and fast. There, the devil tried to tempt our Lord, but Jesus prevailed. He then went to Gailee to begin His ministry proclaiming, “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news.”

(Mark 1:15)

During Lent thirst and hunger for God and His Word; be filled, renewed and transformed.

REFLECTION

We continue this weekend looking at the fifth Beatitude as given by Dr. Peter Kreeft.

“Blessed are the merciful, for mercy shall be theirs”

Mercy is the compassion and/or forgiveness shown towards someone whom it is within one’s power to punish or harm. God shows us great mercy when we sin against Him. Christ instructs us to do the same with our neighbor.

Quick Reflection:

Do I assist the poor according to their means? Do I practice every possible spiritual and corporal work of mercy? Do I patiently endure the faults of others? Do I strive to excuse them and willingly forgive them of their faults?

The greatest rewards are awarded to one who is merciful because God will be merciful. However, a judgment without mercy shall be passed on the unmerciful.

Avarice is greed, the selfish reach to grab and keep for oneself (the opposite of mercy, which is the reach to give, to share with others, even the undeserving). [6] Justice is to give to others what they are due, what they deserve. Mercy is when we give to those who do not deserve of our forgiveness. The practice of mercy is to constantly look beyond what we want or what we deserve, and to be conscious of what we can do for others, whether we feel they are deserving or not. For example, if a homeless man asks us for money, we do not have time to question him, and decide whether he is deserving of our money or not.

Let us remember the words of the Lord’s Prayer, “forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.” In this Beatitude, Jesus promises us that those who are merciful will be treated mercifully.
